Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts upon the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, Dealers.

Local News.

Mrs. Milton Keller and baby have returned from Missouri.

Mrs. Corrie Revis of Houston was the week-end guest of Mrs. Jap Archer.

News comes from France that Mr Kyle Lyon is all right after much hard fighting.

Sergt. Maj. Robt. W. Brewster is home from Camp Hancock for a few days.

School opened again this week after a close of about three months because of the flu.

Mr. W. R. Droke spent the first part of the week in Jackson Miss. the guest of his brother.

Mrs. T. J. Buchanan has been on a visit to Mrs. Jao. L. Heiss Gulfport for the last two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. George Foster are the proud possessors of a son who arrived with the end of the old year.

Mrs. T. J. Buchanan of Little Rock Arkansas is on a visit to her sister-in-law Mrs. W. F. Buchanan.

Mr. Everett Ivy arrived home from Camp Pike a few days ago, having received his discharge from the army.

Mrs. Carrie Limberger, of Texarkana, Texas, is visiting her father and mother Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Whiteside.

Mr. W. V. Holmes, of Birmingham, visited his brother, Mr. N. A. Holmes, and family during the holidays.

On opening school this week it was found that the heating plant was burned out and it was necessary to scatter for warm rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Keller have the sympathy of the community in the death of their daughter who passed away last night at their home here.

Miss Sara Josephine Battle, who spent the holidays with her mother and grandmother has returned to Smith College Northampton Mass. on Monday.

The flustill has our force down below working condition and we are not yet able to get to work in the job department and the paper is necessarily short and a bit late.

Mrs. C. S. Battle who has been with her mother Mrs. M. J. Tucker for the last four months, leaves on Friday to join her husband in California via New Orleans.

Rev. W. L. Downing will preach at the Presbyterian Church next Sunday morning and evening. A new out-look on ourselves in this new day will be offered in the messages. Members expected; others most cordially invited to attend services.

We are glad to learn that Seagt-Maj. Luther Abernethy, (and we presume many more of our boys also) has landed in the United States and is now on the way to Camp Beauregard where they will be mustered out of the service.

Rev. J. H. Brooks and family are now occupying the Methodist Pastor's home here and are an appreciated addition to our city. Bro. Brooks spent last year in the Y. M. C. A. work and is a likable man. He has held services the past two Sundays and seems to fit into the work like a veteran. We bespeak for him the hearty cooperation of Church and community.

Honor British Heroine

In the officers' mess at a Royal Warwickshire regiment formerly the 51st regiment, is a framed engraving of Hannah Snell, the British Amazon, who not only served in this regiment but also in the marines.

Percy N. Quinn, of Okolona is now with the Times-Post, in the capacity of head-printer and foreman. Percy is a son of W. T. Quinn, editor of the Okolona Messenger, and has been in the printing business all his life, and is an a-1 printer. Percy has proven himself as patriotic as any who have done real service on the battle front in the Great World War, just ended. When war was first declared he made several efforts to get into the service of his country through various branches of the army but was rejected on account of slight defects. When the Selective Act was first passed, he was still left out by not being 21 years of age, but when the age limit was lowered he entered training service at the Mississippi A. & M. College, from which service he was released on the 11th day of this month. (December)—Times-Post.

Sossaman-Edens

An interesting nuptial event to friends in Mississippi as well as in Alabama, was solemnized on the first day of the New Year at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Webster Rayfield when the marriage of their sister, Zoe Hamilton Sossaman and Mr. James Edward Edens, of Okolona, Miss., took place at high noon. The Rayfield home, 1110 Texas street, was decorated in palms and Richmond roses.

The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Father E. J. Hackett, was witnessed by the relatives and intimate friends, and among the out-of-town guests were the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Whiting Ames and the groom's daughter, Miss Blanche Edens, all of Okolona, Miss., and the bride's cousin, Mrs. H. P. Ellis, of Oak Grove, Ala. Prior to the ceremony some sweet vocal and instrumental selections were furnished by Miss Margaret Vickers and Miss Clara Sims, with Mrs. Ellis playing their accompaniments. Miss Vickers sang "All For You" and Miss Sims "At Dawning;" these two also singing the wedding march as the bride entered with her uncle, Mr. Ames.

Miss Sossamon, of the handsome brunett type, was gowned in a coat suit of velours in reindeer shade, trimmed in Hudson seal with which she wore a hat of the same shade, trimmed in darker shade wings, and brown shoes and gloves, and carried a bouquet of Richmond roses. During the ceremony the bride's little namesake, Zoe Rayfield, stood with her and held the wedding bouquet.

Following the ceremony the wedding guests were served with a plate luncheon, and at 2 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Edens left for New Orleans to spend a week before going to their future home in Okolona, Miss., where Mrs. Edens has many friends, having on various occasions visited her uncle, Mr. Whiting Ames, there.—Mobile Register.

"BEST MEDICINE FOR WOMEN"

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did For Ohio Woman.

Portsmouth, Ohio.—"I suffered from irregularities, pains in my side and was so weak at times I could hardly get around to do my work, and as I had four in my family and three boarders it made it very hard for me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me. I took it and it has restored my health. It is certainly the best medicine for women's ailments I ever saw."

Mrs. Shaw proved the merit of this medicine and wrote this letter in order that other suffering women may find relief as she did.

Women who are suffering as she was should not drag along from day to day without giving this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. For special advice in regard to such ailments write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of its forty years' experience is at your service.

PERUNA A WONDERFUL MEDICINE

Rundown and Unable to Work

"I am pleased to recommend Peruna as it was beneficial in restoring my health when I was all run down from overwork and nervous worry and was unable to take up my regular work. A friend recommended Peruna and said he was sure that it would restore my strength. I soon found that I was getting better and in a little over two months I was able to resume my duties with renewed vigor and strength. It certainly is a wonderful medicine to vitalize the system."
